

ALL CHURCHES TO HOLD CHRISTMAS SERVICES SUNDAY

Catholic Church Services Will Begin at Midnight on Christmas Eve

Peace on earth good will to men will be the keynote of practically all of the services in the local churches tomorrow, Christmas eve. Practically all of the churches will hold their Christmas services tomorrow rather than Christmas Day. St. Peter's Catholic Church is an exception to this rule, however, as its services will be held on Christmas Day. The first mass will be sung at midnight Christmas eve, followed by five other masses celebrated between 7:30 and noon Christmas morning.

Christmas sermons will be preached in every church of the city tomorrow, the air will be filled with Christmas carols and Christmas cantatas will be put on by many of the church societies and organizations. Many of the Sunday school services tomorrow morning will be featured by Christmas trees for the members of the schools and Santa Claus will be a busy man during the morning hours.

Christmas Cantata
A beautiful Christmas cantata entitled "The Greatest Christmas Gift" will be presented Sunday morning by the choir of Grace Lutheran Church. The piece is a composition of H. W. Pette and is unusually musical and pretty. A choir of fifteen voices under the direction of Mrs. Oliver A. Wood, chorister, will sing the cantata. The personnel of the choir is as follows:

Soprano, Miss Margaret Frischkon, Miss Fred Wallace, Miss Besse Rosenmerkle, Miss Clara Leaman, Mrs. Russell Conner and Miss Helen Thayer; alto, Mrs. C. A. Phipps, Mrs. Warder Tutt, and Mrs. Oliver Wood; tenors, A. Byers, C. P. Stannagan and Harry Glavin; basso, C. H. Bloom, Will Shann, and E. C. Frey.

The cantata will be presented as follows:
Chorus with ten obligato, "Hear the Angels Sing," obligato, Frank Stannagan; duet, "The Greatest Gift," Miss Frischkon and Miss Wood; chorus, "God Remembered," quartet, "Make This Day Like Him," Miss Frischkon, Mrs. Wood, Mr. Grov, Mr. Bloom; bass, recitative and air, "The New King," Mr. Bloom; soprano, aria, "The Star of the Wonderful Story," Miss Frischkon; trio, "Glorify Him," Miss Frischkon, Mr. Byers, Mr. Grey; alto, "Star of Hope," Mrs. Wood; chorus, "In the Quiet Starlight," chorus, "God Hath Given His Son," Kant chorus, "Let His Name Be Renowned."

St. Peter's Catholic.
High Mass will be celebrated by the Rev. P. H. Gilreath at St. Peter's Catholic Church at midnight Christmas eve. Appropriate music will be furnished for this service by the church choir. A special Christmas sermon will be preached by the Reverend Father Gilreath. Five other masses will be celebrated Christmas Day, the first one beginning at 7:30 and the last one at 10:30 o'clock.

Diamond Street M. E.
"The Everlasting Light" is the title of a service of song to be given under the leadership of Mrs. S. A. Shuttleworth at the Diamond Street Methodist Episcopal Church, of which the Rev. A. D. Craig is pastor, at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening. The pastor of the church will preach his Christmas sermon at the 10:30 service tomorrow morning. The Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a. m. and following the class work Santa Claus will give the children a treat. The Bible Class for men will meet in the church auditorium, and the McElfresh Class for women will meet in its usual meeting place. At 6:30 the Epworth League will present a Christmas carol service under the leadership of Mrs. Gertrude M. Shaffer.

M. E. South
"An Occasion of Rejoicing" will be the subject on which the Rev. Robert T. Brown, pastor of the Billingsley Memorial Methodist Episcopal church South, in Fairmont, avenue and Third street, will preach at 10:45 o'clock tomorrow morning. At 7:30 o'clock in the evening a Christmas pageant will be given by the entire Sunday school in the assembly room of the school. Sunday school will be held at 9:30 a. m., with H. T. Jones, superintendent in charge.

Central Christian
"Universal Peace, and How to Get It" will be the subject of the Christmas evangelistic sermon which the Rev. James E. Gordon, pastor of the Central Christian Church in Walnut avenue and Second street, will preach at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night in his church. At the morning service at 10:45 o'clock the Reverend Mr. Gordon will speak on "The Heart of Christmas." As Sunday is "Universal Peace Day" in the churches both of the sermons will be in keeping with the day. Miss Eva Hartley is director of the choir, and special Christmas music is being arranged for both of the services.

Bible school will be held at 9:30 a. m., with Seymour Mc Intire, superintendent, in charge, and a treat will be given to everyone present. An especial Christmas program has been arranged for the Christian Endeavor service, which will be held at 6:30 p. m.

Christian Science Society
A service of the Christian Science Society will be held in the auditorium of the Masonic Temple at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. Sunday school will be held at the same hour. An evening service will be held at 7:30 p. m. the first Wednesday of each month.

First Presbyterian
The Rev. H. G. Stoetzer, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will tell his congregation of "A Governor that Shall Feed the People" at the 10:45 o'clock service tomorrow morning. Brewer's cantata, "The Holy Night," will be given by a quartet during the evening service at 7:30 o'clock and a short address will be made by the Reverend Mr. Stoetzer. At 9:30 a. m. Bible school classes will be held under the direction of the superintendent, Frank C. Ewan. Junior Endeavor meeting will be held at 2:30 p. m. and the Intermediate Endeavor members will meet at 6:30 o'clock. The school of missions classes will be discontinued for one week.

Christ Episcopal
A Sunday school festival will be given in the Christ Episcopal Church, of which the Rev. E. S. Towson is pastor, at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. It will be entitled "A White Christmas Festival," when the children will give as well as receive. The holy communion service will be held at 8 a. m. and the morning prayer and sermon exercises will begin at 10:45 o'clock. The midnight service Christmas eve will start at 11:45 o'clock with the singing of Christmas carols. The communion service will begin at 12 o'clock. The Sunday evening service will be discontinued this week.

First Baptist
"Jesus" will be the subject of the sermon to be delivered by the Rev. W. J. Eddy, pastor of the First Baptist Church, at the 10:45 o'clock service tomorrow morning. The sermon will be illustrated in part. A vocal solo will be given by Edward Eardley and the primary school. A quartet and chorus will be furnished by the Junior School in addition to a special number by the choir.

First M. E.
Wessel's cantata, "Noel" by the choir of the First M. E. Church, and a pageant, "The Adoration of the Kings and Shepherds," will constitute the main phase of the 7:30 o'clock service in the church tomorrow evening. The "white gift" service will also be held at this time. The morning service at 10:45 o'clock will be featured by the sermon, "Christ's Program of Peace," to be given by the pastor, the Rev. Claude H. King. Sunday school will be held at 9:30 a. m. under the direction of C. W. Evans, superintendent. The first quarterly conference will be held at 2:30 p. m. Junior League, with Nelle Bogges as leader, will meet at 6:30 p. m. "A Christian's Christmas" will be the subject of the session.

Epworth League will meet at 6:30 p. m. under the leadership of Miss Ruth Feather. A special Christmas carol program will mark this service. Tuesday evening from 7 to 7:45 o'clock the teacher training class will be held. At 8 o'clock the Dinevor Welsh Concert Co. will appear at this church. Wednesday night, church training night, a basket picnic will be held at 6 o'clock, following which devotionals will be held at 7 and classes will meet at 8 o'clock. A joint meeting of the W. F. M. S. and Isabelle Thorburn Circle will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Girls and Boy Scouts will meet Friday at 7:30 p. m.

M. P. Temple
In the Methodist Protestant Temple in Monroe street, of which Dr. J. C. Broomfield is pastor, the following musical program will be given at the morning service at 10:45 o'clock: Overture, the organ; "Comfort, Ye" and "Every Valley," Robert Holman; "And the Glory," choir; "Thus Saith the Lord" and "But Who May Abide," Clyde Beckett; "Behold a Virgin" and "O Thou That Tellest," Miss Pauline Reed and choir; "For Unto Us," choir; "Pastoral Symphony," organ; "There Were Shepherds," and "Lo the Angel," "And the Angel Said," "And Suddenly There was," Mrs. Bruce Bailey; "Glory to God," the choir; "Thou Shalt Feed the Blind," "He Shall Feed His Flock," Miss Reed; "Come Unto Me," Mrs. James Thomas; "His Yoke is Easy," the choir; "Hallelujah Chorus," the choir.

At the evening service, at 7:30 o'clock, the program will consist of: "Adeste Fideles," choir and congregation; "Lo, How a Rose Ever Blooming," male quartet; "While By My Sheep," "Holy Night," "Good King Wenceslas," the choir; "The First Noel" male quartet; "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing," choir and congregation. At this service Doctor Broomfield will give a twenty minute Christmas address.

Baptist Temple
A Christmas treat will be given to the members of the Baptist Temple Sunday School at the close of the service at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. Bible school will convene at 9:30 a. m. The Business Men's Bible Class aims to have an attendance of seventy-five at tomorrow's meeting, fifty persons having been present last Sunday. The Junior and primary members will deliver a short Christmas program at the 10:45 o'clock service tomorrow in place of the regular preaching service. At the 7:30 p. m. service three special Christmas numbers will be sung by the choir. A vocal solo will be given by E. Wolf and the Eolian Male Quartet will give several selections. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. L. L. Lightner previous to the reception of new members into the church. At 6:30 p. m. a meeting of the Senior B. Y. P. U. will be held with Miss Rebecca Summers as leader.

First Methodist Protestant
"The Angels' Message," a cantata of merit, will be given by the choir of the First Methodist Protestant Church at the 7:30 o'clock service tomorrow evening. The Christmas story will be told in songs and readings and the music will consist of quartet and anthem. At 9:30 a. m. Sunday school will be held under the direction of W. D. Schaefer, superintendent. The attendance goal is set for 250.

At 10:45 o'clock the children of the church will present a program appropriate to the season. At 6 p. m. the Junior Endeavor meeting will be held under the direction of Miss Vista Hall, superintendent. Senior Endeavor will be held at 6:30 p. m. Miss Pearl Kincaid will lead the discussion of the subject of the meeting, "How to Have Christmas All the Year."

Highland Avenue M. E.
